

ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION

Who is Eligible to Elect Benefits?

Full-time employees.

Eligible Dependents

- Spouse, Civil Union Partner, and Child(ren).
- A covered child not capable of self support when he or she reaches age 26 due to mental illness or incapacity, or a physical disability. Coverage for children with disabilities may continue only while the child is unmarried or does not enter into a civil union or domestic partnership, and the child remains substantially dependent on you for support and maintenance. You may be contacted periodically to verify that the child remains eligible for coverage.
- To continue coverage for a handicapped child evidence of the child's incapacity and dependency must be provided to the Business Office at least 31 days prior to the termination of coverage.
- If you are enrolling a dependent(s) for the first time, you will need to provide proof of your dependent's eligibility (i.e., birth certificate, marriage certificate, proof of full-time status, etc.).

When Does Coverage for Dependent Children End?

- Medical Coverage: Young adults will be covered through the end of the calendar year in which they turn age 26.
- Prescription Coverage: Young adults will be covered through the end of the calendar year in which they turn age 26.
- Dental Coverage: Dependent children will be covered through the end of the calendar year in which they turn age 23.

Benefit Waiting Period

Benefits start the first day the employee starts.

NJ Dependent Under 31 Coverage

Certain young adults over age 26 may be eligible for continued coverage, for Medical and Prescription only, until age 31 under the NJ Dependent Under 31 for medical and prescription benefits only. In order to be eligible for the coverage, the young adult must meet certain criteria such as:

- Under the age of 31
- Had previously maintained creditable coverage from any state
- Unmarried
- Has no children or dependents of their own
- Lives in New Jersey or, if not a New Jersey resident, is a full-time student at an accredited institution of higher education
- Not eligible for Medicare and is not actually covered under another group or individual health plan

For full eligibility details, please visit
